

Trinity E.M.S. Donates First Aid Kit to Dracut Council on Aging

Trinity Emergency Medical Service is proud to announce that they've donated a much needed first aid kit to the Dracut Council on Aging.

The Dracut Council on Aging provides programs, services and activities for Dracut citizens over the age of 60. Their mission is to enhance quality of life through the identification and assessment of health, economic, social and cultural needs.

“We are pleased to assist the Dracut Council on Aging by donating a vital first aid kit,” said Trinity E.M.S. President John Chemaly. “All of us at Trinity E.M.S. look forward to building a lasting relationship with the Dracut community.”

Founded by John Chemaly and Gary Sepe in 1991, Trinity E.M.S. has grown to be the largest emergency medical services provider in the region. Trinity E.M.S. currently has over 270 employees and 75 vehicles working out of seven bases throughout the Merrimack Valley and Southern New Hampshire.

WE RESPOND TO YOU.

In The News

Pictured (L to R): John Chemaly, President at Trinity E.M.S., Bethany Loveless, Executive Director at Dracut Council on Aging, Donna Houston, Social Services Coordinator at Dracut Council on Aging, Christopher Dick, Director of Business Development at Trinity E.M.S.

A horizontal banner with a red-to-orange gradient background. It features a faint image of an ambulance and an EMT. The text "WE RESPOND TO YOU." is written in a bold, white, italicized sans-serif font.

WE RESPOND TO YOU.