

Trinity E.M.S. Donates Computers to Groveland Fire Department

Trinity Emergency Medical Service recently donated five used Panasonic Toughbooks to the Groveland Fire Department to improve emergency medical services for the community.

These laptops will help the Groveland Fire Department move away from paper reports and begin to file patient care reports electronically.

“We believe in the power of technology and are pleased to donate the laptops,” said Trinity E.M.S. President John Chemaly. “Assisting the communities that we serve is always our top priority.”

Trinity E.M.S. provides 911 services to 14 municipalities in the Greater Merrimack Valley and Southern New Hampshire including Lowell, Chelmsford, Dunstable, Haverhill, Groveland and Dracut, Massachusetts as well as Plaistow, Atkinson, Newton, Hampstead and Sandown, New Hampshire.
